PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS.

Again the month of December is with us as a reminder of another anniversary and that one more year has been added to our association. While we have not been blessed with cloudless skies o'erhead or the most flowery paths beneath our feet, we are thankful matters have been no worse.

In reviewing the past year from a business standpoint, while it has not equalled some of its predecessors in its volume, we believe the showing will compare favorably with other associations of its kind. We have been in communication with nearly all the swine record associations and without exception so far as we have been advised by the officers the volume of business has fallen off considerably in the last two years, commencing with the panic of 1907.

However, a more rosy prospect seems to be the general consensus of opinion which we believe to be well grounded pork hogs sailing around the eight dollar mark and a large number of empty pens at our leading fairs means something to the breeder of swine no matter whether his aim is purely for the block or breeding purposes or both. All are warranted in displaying a certain amount of enthusiasm and we should all be slow to question each other's motives for while we may adopt different methods as a rule the end to be attained is the same.

The writer has been quite closely connected with the Duroc Jersey for nearly a quarter of a century and it might be somewhat interesting to the young breeder to turn back to the forepart of the book or the introductory and observe about how he was rated in the closing years of the 80s. We can remember at about that time the swine fraternity as a whole seldom allowed an opportunity to pass without giving him a kick. In looking through the files of the leading agricultural and live stock journals of that time we find his advertisers can easily be counted on one's fingers and still have fingers to spare.

We also remember at about that time it was intimated to us by our friends that the courts were lax in their duties if they failed to appoint a guardian for anyone who contemplated embarking in the Duroc Jersey enterprise, and were quick to remind us of the act that a certain breeder had made application for entries at the Minnesota state fair only to be informed by the officers that they had no room or classes for them and that if he wanted to exhibit hogs at their fair he must breed something the people wanted. Attend any of the leading fairs or expositions today and we find (without casting reflections upon any other breed) he stands well up in the front ranks both as to numbers and quality.

From the date we speak of to the present he has seemed to come by easy stages as it has been a steady, even growth or evolution more in spite of than through any advertising he may have received by the boosts of his friends or kicks of his enemies.

What has really been the cause of this transformation we might answer and at the same time air our national vanity by saying he is an American product, but there are other successful breeds of foreign origin so the answer we would give is because he stands on the solid "rock of merit." He has demonstrated his ability to convert his food into high-priced meats, he is a good grazer, can get out and make his own living, if necessary. The females are prolific breeders, quiet, careful mothers with good milking propensities—in fact, they are an all around "hog of utility," the kind the people want.

These are the points of excellence that have proved their "Shibboleth" and not because of the "coat of arms" their ancestors might have had in the old country or from the fact of their bearing some aristocratic and in many cases meaningless name.

Considerable talk has been indulged in for the last several years by a class that the "boomer" by his haste is going to injure or ruin the business, while on the other hand it is alleged the conservatives are a clog on the business and it can never be pushed where it belongs while he has to be either carried or dragged, to each of these we say fear not but console yourselves with the fact that associations will be born and die, fads and fancies will spring up only to perish, breeders will come and like moving pictures be flitted off the boards, but the Duroc Jersey will be here in more perfect form than at present long after his conservative as well as more impetuous friends have been gathered to the land of their Fathers. And no matter what the "pusher or puller" may do or say while we have a hungry world to feed, farms to improve, homes to adorn, families to clothe and children to educate, just so long will the happy, contented prosperity-bearing grunt of the Duroc Jersey be audible above the silly arguments of little men.

We should remember that none of us are infallible but all have our shortcomings or weak spots, give the other fellow all the respect for his opinion you would exact from him, let us have confidence in the universe and our brother man even in those who may imagine themselves our enemies. Remember there is more good than bad among them and if everything does not come our way as we think it ought, it does not signify we have failed and even if the latter should come to pass we can at least console ourselves with the words of Lowell, "Not failure but low aim is crime," and wherever our lines are cast make the best of the surroundings our fears and ailures will be few.

In retiring from the Presidency I wish to say whatever of unpleasantness there may have been is to me a thing of the past, and however my official conduct may have been considered by the patrons, to me it is only a matter of history, "let the dead past bury its dead." I am losing no sleep over the association or the business as I am confident both are in the keeping of honorable and efficient men, and I can see no good reason why it should not always remain so as I don't believe it at all egotistical to state we have plenty of young timber at our command with as much capability and integrity as any association and on their shoulders must rest the work of the coming years.

I am not at all afraid of any vexing problem coming up but at the same time some one equal to the occasion will rise to meet it and at the same time be broad enough to get out of old ruts and join hands with the new occasions the coming years are bound to bring.

I believe our meeting of today is the starting point of the most successful era in the association's history. How nearly this prediction will be proven lies entirely with the patrons. The time worn adage "United we stand and divided we fall" is as sound today as it ever was and will make no exception of our association.

Trusting the tenets of the above adage may be observed and that my personal appreciation and gratitude may be proven by my loyalty, I am

Respectfully yours,

H. F. HOFFMAN.

History of The Duroc-Jersey Swine

It seems to be well authenticated that the exact origin or early history of the Red Hog, now recorded as Duroc-Jerseys is not positively known. Many are of the opinion that they are purely American bred, while we have gathered much information pointing toward stock that was imported at an early date, of which we will make mention later on in this work.

It is a fact now generally conceded by all who are interested in this popular breed of swine, that there were two families of them, some years ago, one known as Jersey Reds and the other as Durocs.

JERSEY REDS.

The name Jersey Reds was probably given to this family by Joseph B. Lyman, about thirty-three years ago, who at that time resided in New Jersey, and was the Agricultural Editor of the New York Tribune. Previous to this period they had been called Red Hogs. Mr. Lippencott, of New Jersey, was the first person to advertise these hogs as Jersey Reds.

We find in Clark Petit's History of Jersey Reds, that in the year of 1832, there was a pair of Red pigs shipped from Spain to Salem, New Jersey, and he says "that their unique color at once rendered them objects of special interest in a locality long noted for successful swine breeders and feeders, among whom had long existed a great spirit of rivalry, as to who should annually win the honor of raising the best lot of hogs, making the greatest average weight at different ages, for which leading Philadelphia butchers paid advanced price." It was soon noticed that the offspring of the Reds universally proved to be quick, profitable feeders, almost invariably outweighing those of other breeds at like ages. Much of the superiority undoubtedly arose from their pre-eminent constitutional vigor and consequent capacity to properly assimilate their food.

The hogs bred in New Jersey attained great size, as will appear from the following weights made at different ages:

30 hogs, 22 months old, averaged	686	pounds, dressed.
18 hogs, 22 months old, averaged	734	pounds, dressed.
23 hogs, 20 months old, averaged	639½	pounds, dressed.
34 hogs, 17 months old, averaged	565	pounds, dressed.
51 hogs, 17 months old, averaged	520	pounds, dressed.
17 hogs, ... averaged	862	pounds, dressed.
20 hogs, ... averaged	882	pounds, dressed.
25 pigs, 8 months old, averaged	413	pounds, dressed.
16 pigs, 7 months old, averaged	278	pounds, dressed.
20 pigs, 6½ months old, averaged	280	pounds, dressed.

This list could be much extended, but we deem this sufficient to show an idea of the size of the Jersey Reds attained and the feeding qualities they possessed.

Twenty years ago, old men in Burlington and adjoining counties, New Jersey, could not remember a time when there were not Red Pigs, either could they tell where they came from. Mr. Brown, of Windsor, N. J., said he had seen them bred with uniformity of great size fifty years ago.

DUROCS.

In giving the history of this family of Red Hogs, we have no better authority than is given in Vol. 1 of our Records and which is substantially as follows:

The Duroc family of Red Hogs were so called by Isaac Frink, a prominent farmer living in the town of Milton, Saratoga County, N. Y. In the spring of 1832, Mr. Frink took a mare to the noted stallion, Duroc, then owned by Harry Helsey, in the town of Florida, Montgomery county, N. Y., about 25 miles away. There he saw a litter of ten red pigs, the production of a pair of red pigs brought the year before by Mr. Kelsey, from Oyster Bay, Queens county, N. Y., or imported by him from England. He moved from Oyster Bay to Florida. In regard to the importation of the pigs, the history is not authentic, although Mr. Kelsey told Mr. Frink that they were imported, but the term imported may have been improperly used, as is often the case, even at this late date.

In searching history we find that the produce of these pigs was much sought after, and assumed the name after Mr. Kelsey's famous horse, "Duroc." They spread all through the New England States, and became very popular on account of their great qualities, which we shall hereafter discuss.

In 1830, Wm. Ensign, of Wilbur's Basin, in the town of Stillwater, Saratoga County, N. Y., brought a pair of Red Pigs from Connecticut and the next year he got a few more from the same place. He bred and sold them far and near. Saratoga county was a lively "pork district" in those days, and great interest was taken in the breeding of hogs. The Frink and Ensign families or red hogs were crossed and the breed established. They have been bred ever since, with more or less care and effort at keeping them thoroughbred, but no fixed type or standard was followed (except individual ones). These hogs, according to what information we can gather, possessed most of the characteristics of the Jersey Red family, except they were not so large and were rather finer boned, and no doubt were quite a profitable feeders and producers of pork.

Ex-President, Thos. Bennett, of Rossville, Ill., furnishes us with some reliable evidence, which comes through a correspondence with the Hon. Cassius M. Clay, of White Hall, Ky. The honorable gentleman says: "The Spanish Red hogs were imported by Hon. James B. Clay, from Spain or Portugal, when minister to Lisbon, under Zach. Taylor in 1850. He gave me a pair of pigs the progeny of which I widely distributed, they being such very fine hogs, easily fattened, and the best hog known at that time. Being such noted hogs, it is no wonder they found their way to New York, New Jersey and all eastern and southeastern states."

It is not saying too much when we (the Red Hog breeders), say that they were the foundation stock of that most popular breed of swine, "Poland-Chinas." The Hon. L. N. Bonham, in one of his histories of said breed, in searching to find out how they came to be named "Poland-Chinas," says that "there was an old Polander who had a herd of very fine hogs, said hogs were the produce from a China sow and a Jersey Red boar. So admired were they, and so noted did they become, that they were named after the breeder (Polander), and the sow (China), hence the name Poland-China. It is a fact that the Poland-China, years ago, had red or sandy spots on them, and not very small ones either, and even at the present time some of the best pedigreed Chinas breed sandy spots." Mr. Bennett says: "In the fall of 1889, I went to see one of the best herd of Poland-Chinas in Illinois, and there saw a boar good enough for any one. He was bred in Ohio and bought at a big price. As I was looking him over, the proprietor said: 'There is only one fault with that hog,' 'What is that?' I asked, and in reply he said: 'Some of his pigs have sandy spots on them.' This is no doubt due to the fact that, after years of careful breeding, the old characteristics will continue to crop out."

The general appearance of Duroc-Jersey swine has been much changed in the hands of our western breeders, as will be seen by the late standard adopted by the National Expert Association, at Dayton, Ohio, in February, 1889, and by the American Duroc-Jersey Association in the following November. The breed still possesses many of their old-time characteristics, which make them so popular, and as they are doubtless the most prolific of any breed of swine in existence. Young sows usually farrow from eight to ten pigs at a litter, and from ten to eighteen is not uncommon for old sows. The pigs are very strong at birth, and the sows and pigs very seldom need any attention at this time. They almost invariably impart to their offspring their wonderfully prolific breeding qualities, are good quiet mothers, supplied with a generous flow of milk, raise large, even litters, and other breeds when crossed with them are greatly improved in vigor and as breeders and feeders.

Below we give some extracts from a test at the Experiment Station of the Agricultural College at Michigan.

The breeds represented were the Duroc-Jersey, the Berkshire and the Poland-China, two of each and all barrows.

The pigs were weighed every fourteen days during the experiment and the gains or losses noted and compared with the food for the period, viz: from July 16, 1889, to January 31, 1890—168 days.

It was seen that the two Duroc-Jerseys gained in weight from the beginning. Though as fleshy as any specimens, they were still making excellent gains and were feeding well at time of slaughter. Their average gain was 36.25 pounds per period, or 2.59 pounds per day, secured at a cost of 4.65 pounds of grain for each pound of gain in live weight.

The average gain made by the two Berkshires was 29.16 pounds per period, or 2.11 pounds per day secured at a cost of 5.22 pounds of feed for each pound of gain.

The average gain per period of the Poland-Chinas was 25.91 or 1.85 pounds per day, secured at a cost of 5.87 pounds of feed for one pound of gain.

The meat of the different breeds was cooked and tested, and it was the unanimous opinion of those who ate of the meat that that from the pigs making the best gains at the time of slaughter was the most tender and juicy, the sweetest and best. This was the pork of the Duroc-Jersey.

Mr. Bennett is an extensive breeder of Duroc-Jerseys, Poland Chinas and Tamworths, and he claims for the Duroc-Jerseys, as bred today, that they are the best general purpose hog in the United States, having a stronger constitution, being more prolific, better sucklers, and where breeders of other breeds raise from three to five pigs to the sow, the Duroc-Jerseys raise from eight to fourteen pigs to the sow. As bred today they grow faster when young, and fatten as readily as any pig when more matured. They are the only hog today that will make their own bed, grind their own food, and, when fat carry their own carcass to market.
